

Week 39

2 Chronicles 16:7-9. King Asa.

Asa honored the Lord and had no war for 35 years of his reign. He trusted in the Lord all this time. Yet towards the end of his reign, he bribed the king of Aram instead of trusting the Lord for deliverance. If our heart is completely the Lords, He looks to and fro throughout the whole earth to strongly support us. God may we remain faithful to the end and always trust in You.

"At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the Lord your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand. Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim an immense army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the Lord, He delivered them into your hand. For the eyes of the Lord move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will surely have wars.""

2 Chronicles 16:7-9 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

America's Call To Prayer

The Lesson of King Asa

2 Chronicles 16:9: For the eyes of the Lord move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will surely have wars."

The Eyes of the Lord

The Lord is looking through the whole earth to find those whose hearts belong to Him.
He will strongly support those who are His!
Find your way through the eye of the Lord until He reaches you in the middle!

My heart belongs to the Lord!

2 Chronicles 16:9